Sharing Centennial's Pride

"When you know better, you do better" - Maya Angelou

Principal's Message

Dear Centennial Community,

We wish you all a wonderful school year filled with growth, learning, and new opportunities. May you find success not only in your studies but also in building friendships, discovering your passions, and shaping the path toward your future. Have a fantastic year! ★

What Would You Tell a CRHS Student Today?

Play something
Perform something
Create something
Carve yourself in everything you do, with everything you have. It may be uncomfortable, it may not be perfect, but it'll be worth it.

Profession:

IAccounts Receivable

Degrees:

Social Science - Psychology - Champlain College
(Accounting courses in my future)

Proudest Accomplishment:

Resilience and optimism! The ability to live through anything, and to learn from everything.

Favourite CRHS Memory:

Leaving my mark every time I somehow ended up on stage (Shows, Competitions)

Tech Tips: Lead by example-- children notice how you use devices—if you're often distracted by your phone or multitasking with screens, they'll tend to mimic it. Be mindful of your own device usage. Source: New York Times
