

Calling all Sec 3, 4, and 5 students!

Are you a natural born leader? Do you enjoy being part of a team? Do you want to push the boundaries of your comfort zone? Well then Leadership Camp is the place to be!

This year, CRHS, in partnership with Dynamix, will be organizing a Leadership Camp for senior students! It will take place on February 10th and 11th, leaving school at 4pm on the Friday and returning in the evening on Saturday.

The total cost of this camp is 170.00$ per student. (This includes all meals, transportation, prizes, animation, and supervision).

There are a limited number of spots available, so it is first come, first served!

Deadline for payment is January 30th, 2023

SKEINERS UPDATE!! IMPORTANT!! Please read and reply to Ms. Brum’s post on Teams. A response is necessary to prepare for the next project – a CAL (a crochet-along). I’ll see you Thursday, January 26 (Day 7) at lunch in E126

Attention to all secondary 5 students applying to Cegep - New Informatio

Access to database that compiles the names and permanent codes of students with English eligibility certificates will be available to CEGEPs before March 1. This means if you have a certificate of eligibility, you do not need to submit it to the college as part of your application.

For questions or concerns, please see Mrs. Martindale or Mr. Jacob in D102

ATHLETICS:

Good luck to all Basketball Teams playing this week!

** Reminder: GATES are closed by 6 pm. Remember to bring all your things, as there will be no access to get back to your lockers. Entrance to watch the games is by the side D-wing doors down by the gyms.

Hoodie orders: All students and staff may order hoodies at any time throughout the year. Click on the link on our website and fill out the online form. 35$ cash, must then be brought to Jessy in the front office, to finalize your order and get your hoodie made. Any questions, see Jessy in Front office.

"Attention ALL students! CRHS is bringing back the Student Council and we need YOU! A representative will be voted/chosen from each core/homeroom class to meet once a cycle and bring any topics, issues, or ideas to the table! This is the time to use YOUR voice and be HEARD! Do you want a school dance? Or to organize a bake sale? Do you have ideas to enhance Student Life, or make school better? Speak to your homeroom teacher about voting YOU as a class rep! See Miss Zemel or Miss Pope for
